QUARTERLY E-NEWSLETTER!

The New Understanding 2017 program took place at the Warren County Public Library. VSA Kentucky partnered with the Art Education program of the WKU Department of Art. WKU students worked one-on-one alongside K-12 students with and without disabilities.

We are always thrilled to be a part of the Buddy Walk! This was the 19th annual walk supporting Down Syndrome of South Central Kentucky. Thank you to everyone that stopped by and made a 'Buddy Rock'!

Registry Artist Natasha McGee's work will be featured at the offices of Bandy Carroll Hellige beginning January 4th, 2018. Natasha joined the Artist Registry in 2017 and works in encaustic, fiber, and mixed media. Natasha says her art is "all about creating a detailed/multi-layer surface to peer into." Congratulations Natasha!

VSA Kentucky was pleased to once again present exhibitions, professional learning sessions and resources at the Kentucky Exceptional Children's Conference.
