

Arts for All

KENTUCKY

SEASONAL NEWSLETTER

JANUARY 2022

VOLUME 5 | NUMBER 1

Arts Inclusion Programs

Teachers! Are you looking for a way to have fully inclusive, educational arts experiences for your students that interface with your curriculum and enhance learning? We are taking applications with a rolling deadline. Arts for All Kentucky can provide $1350 to your school for an inclusive, hands-on program in creative writing, dance, drama, storytelling, music, or visual art. Activities can be in-person, virtual, or as hybrid projects.

It's not too late! Applications are being considered on a first-come-first-serve basis.

Click below for more information.

Arts Inclusion Application

In the picture above, Kim Soule is teaching a Rounding Up Impressionism lesson at Ohio County Middle School.

Student Traveling Exhibition, 2022 "A Matter of Perspective"

This exhibition showcases original artwork created by K-12 students with disabilities from schools throughout Kentucky. This exhibit will travel to schools and other community venues statewide.

The 2022 Student Traveling Exhibit represents 19 schools with 31 pieces. Students expressed themselves using a variety of artistic media like acrylics, watercolor, tempera, pencil, markers, crayons and mixed media. These young artists have produced imaginative works of art using collage, drawing, and painting techniques.

Contact us for information on how to bring the exhibition to your school or community!

Online Resources

Monthly Podcast

Arts for All
KENTUCKY
STORIES

Episode 9
The Rhythm We Share with Greg Acker

New Episode Available Now!

We're continuing to share the stories of how we impact the lives of students, teachers, families, and communities through creating accessible arts opportunities.

Episode 9 Available Now!

LISTEN ON ANY OF THESE PLATFORMS

 YouTube  Spotify  Listen on Apple Podcasts

Join Greg Acker, an Arts for All Kentucky teaching artist, as he discusses his perspectives on group collaboration, rhythm, and how his drumming and dancing workshops foster participation for all students. Greg has been a longtime teaching artist with the organization and dives back to share a little bit of history as well. Don't miss this one!

Click To Listen!

Studio Live on Facebook

Weekly Facebook Live mini-workshops featuring visual art, music, movement and more. Recorded sessions remain on our Facebook news feed.

ARTSHARE on Facebook

Check out our Facebook page for ARTSHARE, mini lessons in art appreciation, featuring a variety of artists, styles, eras, and techniques. Be sure to share your thoughts, artwork, and photos in the comments.

Sugaring Off
by Grandma Moses, 1943

Stay informed,
Follow and Like Arts for All Kentucky on Facebook!

Video Workshops on our website

We have tons of cool workshops, guided by experienced teaching artists. Step-by-step instructions are provided to encourage artists of all abilities to express themselves in a variety of art forms.

Check out our selection of workshops today!

Artist Interviews

Meet some of the artists who participate in our programs; learn about who they are and what inspires them to create. This series is a wonderful resource for high school transition programs. Listen to their

interviews!

Visit our website to download Arts for All Kentucky program applications: Arts Inclusion, Student Traveling Exhibition, Special Initiatives, Side by Side, and more!

New Additions to the Artist Registry Hanna Wright and Pat Banks

Hanna Wright is a self-taught artist, residing from Keavy, Kentucky, who uses bold lines and bright colors to create abstract figures with relatable expressions. Hanna graduated from the University of the Cumberlands in 2015 with degrees in Special Education Behavioral Disabilities and Elementary Education.

Pat Banks lives in eastern Kentucky and works primarily with watercolor. Her fascination with the medium, combined with her studies and travels, has given her a unique lens for interpreting the world!

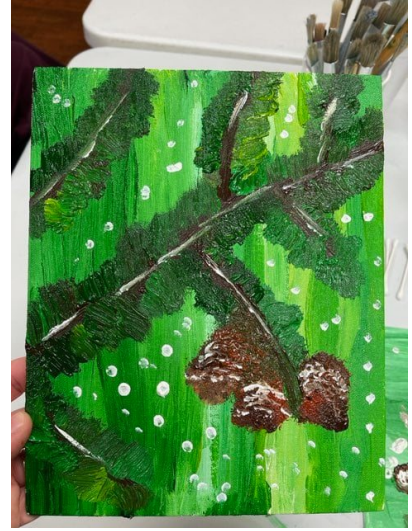

You can see more of Pat's work at www.patbankswatercolors.com

See more of Hanna's artwork.

Click here to learn more about the Artist Registry.

Outreach Updates

We were pleased to offer one more paint along session this year for Barren River Adult Daycare. A calming evergreen to welcome the Winter Solstice. Returning to routine and creating again can be helpful after experiencing the devastation and losses from the tornadoes across Kentucky.

We had a great time at the Center for Accessible Living in Bowling Green on Friday night. We enjoyed painting and decorating holiday trees and eating yummy homemade cookies!

Please consider selecting Arts for All Kentucky as your charity of choice while you shop on Amazon.com. It is free of charge and helps raise urgently needed funds to support our programs across Kentucky.

amazonsmile

Get Started!

THANK YOU!

S O U
A R T S
H

The Kentucky Arts Council, the state arts agency, provides American Rescue Plan funds to Arts for All Kentucky with federal funding from the National Endowment for the Arts.

www.ArtsForAllKy.org

(270) 792-0023

Arts*forAll
K E N T U C K Y

PO Box 3320
Bowling Green,
Kentucky
42102

Arts for All Kentucky | P.O. Box 3320, Bowling Green, KY 42102

Unsubscribe_programs@artsforallky.org

Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Sent by programs@artsforallky.org in collaboration with

Try email marketing for free today!