Now taking applications!

Bring a guest artist, musician, or storyteller to your school through the Arts Inclusion program • Provide a Side by Side program at your school, community center or library • Offer an After School program, Arts Festival or Camp for your kiddos as a Special Initiative project • Check out our Resources and apply. Contact Delaire Rowe at 270-792-0023 or email with your questions. We are happy to help.

Arts Inclusion Program

Experiential, inclusionary arts projects in creative writing, dance, drama, music, storytelling, or visual art. Arts for All Roster Artists collaborate with schools and teachers in designing and implementing residencies that interface with curriculum and enhance learning. 25-30 schools in Kentucky are each awarded $1400 every year. We have a rolling deadline and approved projects will be awarded on a first come first served basis. In-person, visual, and hybrid projects will be considered.

Arts Inclusion Program:
How to Apply

"Kindness Campaign: Creating a Community of Benevolent Citizens"
a mural project at South Todd Elementary with Andee Rudloff.

SIDE BY SIDE

Students with disabilities participate in a series of art classes. Then they are partnered with an artist from their community to create a collaborative piece. The final event is an exhibition of all the artists' work. Family and friends are invited to a reception where the artists are recognized for their accomplishments. To sign up or find out how to bring Side by Side to your community, click on More info.

In a Special Initiative PD session, teaching artist, Lorinda Jones shares her experience in music therapy with teachers and WKU students at Natcher Elementary along with Dr. Miwon Choe who facilitated a Zentangle activity.

Adults Programs: Arts for All Workshops

Thanks to the Community Foundation of South Central Kentucky for providing funding for adult programs. Participants at Lifeskills Industries in Warren County were introduced to artist Georgia O'Keeffe. Then each completed their own study of her Single Lily with Red; which O'Keeffe completed in 1928. Great work All!

Artist Registry News

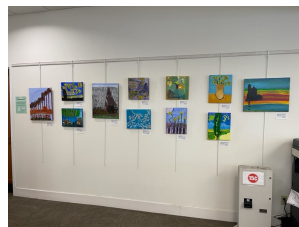

Registry artists exhibiting:

- Michael Dixon
- Frosty Rankin
- Terry Joe Sledd
- Jack Cochran
- Tammy Ruggles
- Pat Banks

Seven artists on our Artists Registry will be participating in an exhibit at the Art Center of the Bluegrass in Danville. The exhibit will showcase the creativity of artists with disabilities, both within Kentucky and from around the country, supporting the Art Center's commitment to strengthening inclusive arts programming in our region. Exhibition dates are January 13 - March 23, 2023 with an opening reception on January 13th. For more information about the Art Center of the Bluegrass contact Niki Kinkade at niki@artcenterky.org. For more information about our Artist Registry contact programs@artsforallky.org.

Art On Tour Exhibits

"My Masterpiece: studies of van Gogh and Monet" were on exhibit at the Smiths Grove and Bob Kirby branches of the Warren County Public Library. These paintings are the work of adults at LifeSkills, Inc. Industries in Allen, Logan, Simpson, and Warren counties as well as Down Syndrome of South Central KY. This program and resulting show were made possible by a grant from the Community Foundation of South Central Kentucky and by the Kentucky Arts Council.

"Selections from the 2022 Student Traveling Exhibit" are on exhibit at Bandy, Carroll, Hellige Advertising October - December.

Arts for All Collaborations "Dinosaur Art" was created by kids attending Step Up for Down Syndrome Day and SOKY Marketplace Crafts Day. The exhibit was on display September - October in conjunction with the Dinosaur Quest show at the Southern Kentucky Performing Arts Center.
