Call for Student Artwork!

Arts for All Kentucky is extending a Call for Art to K-12 students with disabilities in Kentucky schools. Selected artwork will be included in the Annual Student Traveling Art Exhibit. Our goal is to recognize the accomplishments of students with disabilities in the visual arts and to share them throughout the state. In November, the exhibit will be showcased at the Kentucky Exceptional Children's Conference in Louisville.

What is the Student Traveling Exhibit?

It is an annual exhibit comprised of original artwork created by K-12 students with disabilities from across Kentucky. This art exhibit is available to schools, museums, businesses, libraries, and hospitals across the Commonwealth each year.

Submitting Artwork

Only original artwork designed and executed by the student should be submitted. NO copied drawings, projects, or kits will be accepted. Each students may submit up to two (2) pieces.

Size and Specifications

All artwork must be two dimensional or low relief. Dimensions should be no larger than 12x18 inches.
